County Director's Update

MCSSA Conference 3/8/2017 & 3/9/2017; Letters to Senator Schmidt and Representative Chatfield requesting their attendance at the conference will be mailed today on behalf of the board members

A new process is being implemented for transporters for non-emergency medical transportation, in which we are finding problems with the process. The federal government once required this program, but no longer is funding the money. Governor Snyder proposed $12 million in the new budget to help keep this program.
